His Honorable Judge James Orenstein,

I, Robert Colombo – owned Creative Fiberglass, LLC have been served the legal papers pertaining to the suit brought against my insolvent company Creative Fiberglass, LLC and me personally by Fundkite. I have been notified of the re scheduling of the hearing in New York City 7/27/2020 @ 10:00 am. I will not be able to attend because of the financial distress suffered with the insolvency of Creative Fiberglass, LLC. Considering I cannot afford legal representation or the travel expenses to attend, I offer the following:

Creative Fiberglass was represented by a broker who over valued our receivables in arranging for the merchant cash advance. Because of this over valuing Creative Fiberglass after repaying $121,292.31 of the original $150,000 borrowed leaving a balance to the principle of $28,707.69 and $94,707.69 towards the principle and interest we became insolvent. With the emergence of the Covid pandemic, this left us virtually no path forward and forced us to close and I have no savings, stocks, bonds, 401 k or sep accounts.

Regards,

Robert Colombo
